

Uptime and Comperio joined forces

Uptime OÜ is proud to announce its merger with Norwegian IT company Comperio AS. The joint venture became effective on 23rd of December 2015.

Eero Tohver, CEO of Uptime explained: „I am glad to reveal this exciting partnership. Comperio is well - known for its great team of experts that will bring on-board new competence and fresh ideas. Uptime has gradually built trust in Norwegian and Swedish markets, the acquisition of Comperio now gives us a strong local presence and offers new possibilities that both our customers can benefit from.“

„Today, we can complement our high-end search competence with a substantially wider software development service portfolio, enabling us to cater our customers with the new potential, “Ole Kristian Villabø, Administrative Director/CEO of Comperio AS added.

Bo Engren, Country Manager, Sweden agreed: „Joining forces is always a good boost for the companies involved and especially valuable for the client-base. Together we are all stronger. We can put up bigger and versatile teams of software developers and SharePoint consultants and offer more complex set of solutions. This makes us become much better IT partners to our current and future customers. “
